

31 January 1978

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM :

SUBJECT : Stanford

Not much on Stanford

Schedule:

1530-1700 - you will meet in a classroom on campus with approximately 8 professors and 25-30 students. They will include undergraduate and graduate students from political science and law curriculum. There is a possibility that there will be representatives from the student newspaper and radio present.

2000-2100 - The address will be KRESGE Auditorium, which holds 500-600 people. The address is open to the entire student body and faculty. Local media have also been invited.

Contacts:

Principal contact has been Brian Decker, President of Stanford Speakers Bureau. Jim King has also been in touch with his contacts at the Stanford and has talked with the Dean of Students re your address. The Dean said there should be no problem filling the auditorium.

Very respectfully,